Points: 0-3	Points: 4-10	Points: 11-15
There is no coordination evident between McKinney Vento and other school programs and services that provide instructional and non-instructional support. The proposal describes no coordination or very limited coordination between the school, community and other state agency services for the homeless. No involvement of parents/guardians of homeless children is described or parent involvement is limited and not related to the child's education.	The proposal contains a clear description of how McKinney Vento services are coordinated with other programs to address the instructional needs of homeless students. The proposal describes the coordination between McKinney Vento services and other school, community and/or state agency services for homeless children and youth. The proposal indicates that efforts have been made to involve parents/guardians of homeless children and youth.	Meets all criteria for adequate. Coordination with specific programs is described, such as Title I and 31a, to provide additional instructional support for homeless students. Coordination with specific programs is described, such as the school meals program, to provide non-instructional support for homeless students. The proposal includes a variety of coordination activities and an intensive effort to collaborate between school and community agencies with specific agency and staff names and a communication plan that indicates regular contacts. Parents/guardians are included in specific ways, such as regular meetings, parent/teacher compact, planning committees for this grant and for Title I, regular communication.

4. Evaluation Plan:

- a. If the McKinney Vento grant is effective in removing barriers to enrollment, attendance and academic success, the applicant will be able to show results using school or school district level data. Describe the data used to show need.
- b. Describe the measurable objectives for the grant and the data that will be used to show the achievement of each objective.
- c. Include the timeline for measuring and analyzing the data, as well as the names of staff members who will be responsible for gathering, analyzing and reporting the data.

Marginal (lacks sufficient information; requires clarification or additional information)	Adequate (clear and complete)	Exemplary (well conceived and thoroughly developed)
Points: 0-3	Points: 4-10	Points: 11-15
No data is cited to illustrate program need. The data used does not have a clear relationship to the proposed objectives. The timeline is incomplete or unrealistic. Deadlines for gathering and analyzing program data fall outside of the program reporting requirements. Program staff members are not named. Responsibilities for program staff members are not clear.	The proposal uses data to illustrate the need for program grant funds. The proposal includes measurable objectives. The proposal specifies data that will demonstrate the achievement of proposed objectives. The proposal includes a timeline for gathering and analyzing data. The timeline is realistic and comprehensive. The responsibilities of staff members are described.	Meets all criteria for adequate. The data used to illustrate both need and program success includes student assessment data, attendance data and high school completion data. The timeline is used as a grant management tool to ensure program accountability.

7. Budget

- ❖ Does the budget reflect efficient use of program funds?
- ❖ Does the budget describe how Title I set aside funds will be calculated and used to support the education of homeless children and youth?

Marginal (lacks sufficient information; requires clarification or additional information)	Adequate (clear and complete)	Exemplary (well conceived and thoroughly developed)
Points: 0-2	Points: 3-6	Points: 7-10
Budget does not effectively support proposed objectives. There is no mention of Title I set aside funds. There is evidence of supplanting with either McKinney Vento or Title I funds.	The budget uses program funds effectively to meet proposed objectives. The budget narrative describes how Title I set aside funds are calculated. The budget includes a description of how Title I funds are used to support the education of homeless children and youth.	Meets all criteria for adequate. McKinney Vento grant funds are coordinated with other local, state and/or federal funds to provide comprehensive programming for homeless students. McKinney Vento funds do not supplant other funds to provide programs to homeless children and youth.
